

Policy on Faculty Coming Late to Class

Faculty members are expected to start their classes on time based on the class schedule. However, in cases where a faculty is late for twenty (20) minutes for a one (1) hour and twenty (20) minute lecture class, or late for thirty (30) minutes for a two (2) or four (4) hour lecture/laboratory class, the students can already leave their (onsite or online) class. The faculty shall already be considered absent. The faculty is required to make up for this class on a later schedule agreed with students.