2019 Summer Sumo Games and Youth Robotics Convention

May 24-25, 2019

Our Grade School and High School robotics team brought home major prizes in the 2019 Summer Sumo Games and Youth Robotics Convention that was held last May 24-25 at the St. Peter The Apostle School in Manila. In addition to our students, their coaches—Engr. Norman Andres, Dr. Alex Pasion, Dr. Joseph Victor Generato, Mr. Benito Quinit, Jr. and Mr. Danilo Bilbao Jr.—also participated and were able to win prizes in the Professional division of said categories.

Of the seven categories hosted in the event, our students and their coaches won in the three categories that they participated in: SumoBot, Line Tracing, and Robot Building Skills Challenge. Below is a list of their wins:

SumoBot

Champion, 500g Professional Division
1st Runner Up, 500g Elementary Division
2nd Runner Up, 500g Elementary Division
2nd Runner Up, 3kg Professional Division
2nd Runner Up, 3kg Elementary Division
4th Place (Technical Award), 1kg, Professional Division
4th Place (Technical Award), Basic Family Sumo Division

Line Tracing

Champion, High School Division
4th Place (Technical Award), Elementary Division

Robot Building Skills Challenge

4th Place (Technical Award), Elementary Division

The two-day annual event provides an avenue for children and adults to engage in friendly competition and share tips and practices in robot building, programming, solutions, and strategies in winning in different games.
