Holy Week 2018

March 28 to April 1, 2018

By virtue of Proclamation No. 269, s. 2017, President Rodrigo Duterte has declared March 29 (Thursday) and 30 (Friday) as regular holidays, and March 31 (Saturday) as a special non-working holiday. The dates are in observance of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Black Saturday respectively.

To give Lasallian partners and students ample time to travel to their home provinces, President Dr. Bjorn Santos has additionally declared the suspension of classes and work on March 28 (Wednesday) and April 1 (Sunday). In line with this, the campus will be closed starting March 28 to April 1.

During the campus shutdown, only people who are involved in construction and maintenance activities will be allowed access to the campus. Individuals who wish to enter the university during this period must secure a special permission for entry.

Normal office operation and classes will resume on April 2 (Monday).

New Uniform for Partners

April 5 and April 6, 2018

All permanent Lasallian partners are advised to have their measurements for the new uniforms taken on April 5 (Thursday) and 6 (Friday). The uniforms were selected for SY 2018–2019 onwards.

All permanent partners can avail of the uniforms for free, whereas part-time partners will be charged. Non-teaching, non-permanent partners are not required to wear uniforms.

Issuance of Basic Education Department Class Cards

April 12, 2018

Students and parents of the Basic Education Department are reminded to settle their accountabilities and accomplish their clearances before they can claim their class cards on April 12 (Thursday).

Failure to settle accountabilities will result to the withholding of academic credentials and deferment of enrollment for the next school year.

DLSAU Summer Football Clinic 2018
