

Institutional Bulletin

Series 35 of 2018

DLSAU is now an ASEACCU Member Institution

September 2, 2018

The Association of Southeast and East Asian Catholic Colleges and Universities (ASEACCU) through its Executive Secretary, University of Sto. Tomas Rector Fr. Herminio Dagohoy, O.P. welcomed the University as an official member institution in his letter to Dr. Bjorn Santos on September 2. DLSAU joins De La Salle University, De La Salle University-Dasmaringas, De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde and De La Salle Lipa as the 5th Lasallian institution in the Philippines in ASEACCU.

The university's membership with ASEACCU aims to strengthen its linkages and expand its network with other higher education institutions in the region, widening collaborative and partnership activities for administrators, faculty and students.

Men's Basketball Team tallies 1st NAASCU win

September 13, 2018

With a 79-75 score against Manuel L. Quezon University on September 13, the men's basketball team officially tallied its first win with the National Athletic Association of Schools, Colleges and Universities (NAASCU). With this win and an opening day close game, overtime loss from De Ocampo Memorial College, the Green Stallions are 1-1 in its bracket with an upcoming game against St. Francis of Assisi College on September 18 (Tuesday) at Rizal Technological University.

Let us support our Green and Junior Stallions by watching their games.

New Lasallian Veterinarians Recognition Program

September 20, 2018

The thanksgiving and recognition program for our new Lasallian Veterinarians has been rescheduled to September 20 (Thursday) at The Forum. A thanksgiving Mass is scheduled before the 1:00 PM recognition program.

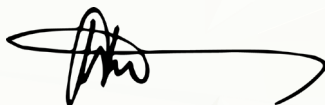

This year's awardees of 55 new Lasallian Veterinarians is led by Veterinary Medicine Licensure Exam 2018 7th placer Dr. Karina Altea Bernert.

LSA Street Force wins anew

September 7, 2018

The La Salle Araneta (LSA) Street Force won First Place in the Dance Synergy Contest held in Notre Dame of Caloocan City on September 7. Congratulations again to our dance troupe!

---

Mr. Christopher N. Polanco
Chancellor