In the late 1950's THE FURROWS was the name of the official student publication of the Araneta Institute of Agriculture (AIA). This institution was first known as AIA when it started as an agricultural school in 1946.

The concept of THE FURROWS was adopted once more in 2002 when Gregorio Araneta University Foundation (GAUF) became a full-fledged member of the Lasallian Family; and henceforth, 'twas called the DE LA SALLE-ARANETA UNIVERSITY. Since the turnover up to school year 2005-2006, it became the official institutional newsletter.

Today, De La Salle Araneta University, now enriched with the heritage of Lasallian schools and a partnership with a 334-year old educational tradition that has its roots in Rheims, France, has recreated and revived THE FURROWS, as it informs its collaborators and stakeholders through its regular publication and dissemination.

NIGHT OF HOPE

(HONORING OUR PARTNERS IN EDUCATION)

On March 7, De La Salle Araneta University hosted its very first donors and benefactors' night: an event which honored and recognized generous men, women, and institutions who have shared their resources to the university in support of our mission of providing quality Lasallian education to everyone, especially to deserving but underprivileged youth.

Titled Night of HOPE (Honoring Our Partners of Education), the event also served as the venue for the formal launching of the university's official institutional video for our 70th founding year. A brief program, which featured performances from Serenata, also served as the highlight for the evening.

Before the Night of HOPE celebrations, a short program on the unveiling of the "Friends of DLSAU" donors' wall—dedicated to all who have greatly contributed to the development and improvement of the university and to those who will extend their support and assistance to us in the coming years—was held at the LSB Lobby.

The following were present to receive their HOPE awards: (1) Mr. Joseph Calata of Calata Corporation, (2) Mr. Wilfredo Decena of WDAI, (3) Dr. Eugenio Claveria+ represented by Dr. Florencia Claveria, (4) Mr. Rodrigo Ko, (5) Mr. Luis Tiu, (6) Mr. Guillermo Choa of PROFRIENDS, (7) Mr. Joseph Hyun of Jabez International Educational Center (8) Security Bank Foundation represented by Ms. Bee Bee Chua and Mr. Ricky Kan and (9) Diwa Learning Systems represented by Ms. Elma Ropeta.

Students experienced rural life first-hand, which involves interaction with the local children, lake and mountain clean-up, and basic hiking.

The immersion activity aimed to inculcate the Lasallian Core Values among our ANCP students and served as partial fulfillment for their NSTP course requirement.
